Hi Angie,

Here is a recent anecdote for you.....

A bride booked me to photograph her wedding for earlier this year. For some reason they had to change the date and I was not available. So, they had to use another photographer. Many months after their wedding the bride was flicking through Ideal Bride and saw the Trash the Dress article! She has now booked me to do a Trash the Dress in November! And I bet you thought they threw the mag away after the big day is done and dusted!

Hear from you soon!

cheers

Tracey
