

To Mick and the team at Ideal Brides,

I want to say, thank you to Mick for his ongoing support and useful information you have provided us this year. You are always available for a chat and very prompt with answering my questions. You truly know the wedding industry in and out and also your company.

Your website is second to none. We are getting so many leads and requests from your website, and I can see the results from the statistics on Google Analytics.

I can now say that Ideal Brides is bringing Playback Productions more enquiries and leads than any other wedding website provider on the web and for that we would love to thank you.

Thank you so much for professionalism and we look forward to keep advertising with your company.

Kink Regards,
